

BREAKFAST PACKAGES

With everyone's busy schedules it can be hard to find enough hours in a day. Sometimes the only answer is to add them to the morning. We at American Pie Catering have come up with some great ways to feed the people who are beating the rooster out of bed. We would like to offer these packages to you as a way to reward your guests and co-workers for turning their 12 hour day into a 14 hour day. With so many options we are sure your selection will get you thanked. Of course, only after they have had their coffee.
